

New Horizons: Exploring Global Health Opportunities

Friday 10th December 2010

The Horizon Centre

Torbay Hospital, Torquay

08.30 - 09.30 REGISTRATION & COFFEE

09.30-09.40 Introduction & Welcome

Dr Kerri Houghton

Consultant Anaesthetist, Torbay

SESSION 1 THE GLOBAL CHALLENGE

Chair: Dr Adrian Copplestone

09.40-10.00 Defining the challenge

Iain Wilson

Consultant Anaesthetist, Exeter

President Association of Anaesthetists GB&I

10.00-10.20 Challenges of setting up a service

Chris Lavy

Professor of Trauma & Orthopaedics, Oxford

10.20-10.40 Delivering care and community education

Vik Mohan

General Practitioner & Associate Dean Peninsula Deanery

SESSION 2

10.40-11.10 GUEST SPEAKER

Chair: Dr Lucy Obolensky

What really helps us?

Dr Samuel Ndanya

Consultant Surgeon Nanyuki Hospital, Kenya

11.10-11.30 COFFEE, TRADE EXHIBITION

SESSION 3

11.30-12.30 1st DISCOVERY ZONES (repeated after lunch)

Discovery Zone 1	Discovery Zone 2	Discovery Zone 3	Discovery Zone 4	Discovery Zone 5
Surgery and Trauma in the Developing World – a number one priority	Delivering and Developing Primary Care	What YOU could offer as part of the team	Educating globally – Delivery, Sustainability.... and becoming mandatory?	Anaesthesia Abroad
Facilitators: David Stitson/Rob Lofthouse Nigel Rossiter Peter Saxby Andrew Kingsnorth	Facilitators: Elisabeth McElderry Edward Parry-Jones Vik Mohan Lucy Obolensky	Facilitators: Denise Allcorn Dawn Osborn James Huntinton Milos Petrov	Facilitators: Adrian Coppelstone Iain Wilson Keith Thomson Roiseen Fin, Hannah Gilbert	Facilitators: Charlie Collins Garry Minto Richard Hughes Matt Halkes
Trauma and injury have been recognised by WHO as the leading cause of death worldwide. Lack of trained surgeons and funding is a major problem throughout poor economy countries How do we; <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• deliver education in trauma care?</li> <li>• assist in the production of a sustainable surgical service ?</li> <li>• benefit personally?</li> </ul> What do we give?	Primary Care and General Practice as a speciality is sparse in the developing world. How do we: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Develop the role of primary care ?</li> <li>• form permanent links with a sustainable teaching programme?</li> <li>• benefit personally?</li> </ul> What do we offer?	As health care practitioners we all have transferable knowledge skills in our area of expertise. What do I have to offer? What attributes do I need to get the most out of working abroad? Will I cope if I volunteer? How do I get involved? How do I benefit?	Sustainable delivery of education is an ongoing conundrum So much can be learnt by working in other health care systems. Intercultural health awareness, an open mind and the ability to innovate are essential skills for tomorrow's doctors. How do we successfully deliver education? How do we ensure this knowledge and skill set are maintained? What is the role of the medical school in developing global health? Is this an optional or compulsory area of the curriculum?	Anaesthesia if often not a speciality in its own right with many 'anaesthetists 'not medically trained. Rural anaesthetists are therefore undervalued, poorly trained and under-confident. How do we: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• deliver knowledge and skills to those desperate to learn?</li> <li>• offer side by side teaching to improve confidence and clinical practice?</li> </ul>

12.30-13.30

LUNCH

SESSION 4

13.30-14.30

2nd DISCOVERY ZONES (as before lunch)

14.30-14.40

REFRESHMENT BREAK

SESSION 5

14.40-15.00

RISING TO THE CHALLENGE

Operation Hernia

Chair: Dr Iain Wilson

Andrew Kingsnorth

Professor of Surgery, Plymouth

15.00-15.20

Global Training

Adrian Coplestone

Clinical Sub-Dean, Peninsula Medical School

15.20-15.40

Establishing conferences in Africa

Keith Thomson

Consultant Anaesthetist and Director of Mercy Ships

15.40-16.00

What you give and what you gain

Sarah Bailey

Surgical Practitioner, London

SESSION 6

16.00-16.20

GUEST SPEAKER

Innovation in time of need

Chair: Dr Charlie Collins

Tom Bentley

16.20-16.30

The Challenge into the Future - Closing Remarks

Iain Wilson

This is a provisional programme